

Jackson Hole Area Restaurant Recommendations:

Teton Village (Most within walking distance of hotel):

- Calico
 - Italian
 - 5 min drive from hotel
 - Would be a great spot for a vendor or supplier dinner destination.
 - The Calico continues its tradition as one of the most popular dining establishments in the valley. Established in 1966, it shines as one of the oldest restaurants in Jackson Hole. This modern American-Italian restaurant is where both regulars and visitors delight in its friendly vibe and great food. Serving delicious entrees with an emphasis on fresh, housemade items and seasonal produce, the Calico is open for dinner nightly starting at 5 p.m.

- Mangy Moose
 - American/Local Fare/Casual/Family Friendly
 - Walking distance to hotel
 - TFCA is having our Tuesday night dinner here!
 - In 1967, the Mangy Moose opened for business in Teton Village, Wyoming. Known for live music, good eats, and being the best place to get loose after a day on the mountain, the Moose quickly became THE spot in Jackson Hole. Restaurant is very casual and a family atmosphere. They have two tiers for downstairs and upstairs seating locations, but do not have a private room.
